FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The City of Horseshoe Bay Invites you to an Open House in celebration of “Municipal Courts Week”

Horseshoe Bay, Texas – November 3, 2023 – The City of Horseshoe Bay is proud to announce Municipal Court Week, Nov. 6-10, a week-long celebration dedicated to raising awareness about the essential services provided by municipal courts in our community and promoting public safety and education.

The event will take place on Wednesday, Nov. 8, from 2:30-3:30 in the City of Horseshoe Bay Council Chambers at City Hall. It will feature court staff on hand to answer questions to foster understanding and engagement with the local court system.

Municipal Court Week is an opportunity for Horseshoe Bay residents to learn about the crucial role of municipal courts in upholding justice, ensuring public safety, and fostering a sense of civic responsibility within our community. The event will provide a platform for residents to explore, engage, and gain insights into the operations of their local municipal court.

Municipal Court Open House Activities:

- Open House: Visitors will have the opportunity to chat with court staff on hand to answer questions and explain court processes
- Free bike helmets available and public safety information

Municipal Court Week is a platform to underscore the importance of community collaboration, transparent processes, and equitable access to justice in Horseshoe Bay. It also emphasizes the commitment of the City of Horseshoe Bay Municipal Court to providing fair and efficient legal services to its residents.

"We are excited to open our doors and connect with the community during Municipal Court Week. It's a unique opportunity for our residents to learn more about the vital role our municipal court plays in ensuring justice and upholding the rule of law in our city," said Beth Kuentz, Court Administrator for the City of Horseshoe Bay Municipal Court. "We look forward to engaging with our residents, addressing their questions, and fostering a sense of transparency and trust."
