

City of Horseshoe Bay Code of Ordinances

Sec. 3.06.016 Signs exempt from regulation

The signs described in this section are exempt from the regulations provided for in this article, except for the types of signs that are otherwise prohibited in section 3.06.017. However, the signs in this section may still require approval of the architectural committee, declarant or amenity owner of the particular subdivision in which they will be located. However, said signs, except as otherwise indicated in this article, shall remain subject to the permit requirements of section 3.06.006 and to construction and electrical standards of city codes.

(6) Political signs concerning candidates for public office and ballot issues, provided that such signs contain primarily a political message and are located on private real property with the consent of the property owner, and provided that each such sign:

(A) Does not carry commercial advertising or other messages that are not primarily political;

(B) Is not larger than six (6) feet by five and one-half (5-1/2) feet and the bottom of the sign cannot extend more than three (3) feet above grade;

(C) Is not more than eight (8) feet high;

(D) Is not illuminated;

(E) Does not have moving elements;

(F) Is not erected earlier than ninety (90) days before the election; and

(G) Is to be removed within two (2) to five (5) days after the election.

Political signs are exempt from the permit requirements of sections 3.06.001 through 3.06.014 and from section 3.06.017 regarding prohibited signs.

(Ordinance 07-09-18A, sec. IV, adopted 9/18/07; Ordinance 10-03-16C adopted 3/16/10; Ordinance 16-03-15B, secs. IV–VII, adopted 3/15/16)

The above information is only a partial reproduction of the Code of Ordinances regulating signs in the City of Horseshoe Bay. Please visit the City's website to review all sign regulations contained in the Code of Ordinances for complete information.