

THINGS to DO...in HSBAY

Arts/Education:

- The Arts Cultural Enrichment Society (CES) HSBay is rich with those interested in visual and performing arts. Interested in advancing the presence of exceptional programs/ activities here in the Bay, join with this non-profit effort: Sandy Howard showard.tx@gmail.com
- Birdwatchers A visiting novice or avid birder, there are lots of friends (feathered and otherwise) to connect with for watches, road trips, lectures. Susan Morgan mistyhillsfarms@hotmail.com
- Communications - The lifeblood of communication in the Bay, the Beacon generously showcases local news/events and special interest stories in a weekly, free publication. Love to write or have stories to share, Jodi Lehman jodilehman2@gmail.com; Linda Lambert 512.787.3329 or thebeacon@nctv.com
- OLLI – The Osher Lifelong Learning Initiative provides local workshops on high interest and interactive topics through the Hill Country Texas Tech Campus in Marble Falls (small fees). For information on current classes/times OR to become active in shaping workshops for the 50+ year old interest areas (arts, literature/ history, technology, travel, current events...) Elaine Waddill jelainewad@aol.com
- Master Gardeners Naturalists Those interested in engaging with other gardeners AND more extensive learning, the Master Gardener program is engaging! The New NATURE PARK will be open in December 2021 – get involved in the volunteer efforts for this special program. Vicki Adcock txrunner55@att.net
- Quilting/Crafts Looking for a clutch of women to share stories while creating works of art, join this Quail Point gathering weekly. Vicki Adcock txrunner55@att.net
- Texana - A ladies social group with a calendar full of dynamic experiences (arts, winery tours, travel outings, and local interactive programs) provide for unique friendships with the myriad of talented women in the HSBay area. By Invitation, but may share interest in participation. Carolyn Bates r_c_bates@msn.com

Woodworking - A small group of new to master level carvers meet regularly at Quail Point to share skills and develop works of art for personal pleasure and/or donations/fund raiser options. (Mostly men)
Sandra Morovitz/POA Director of HSBay

Gaming:

Bingo - Nearly 100 HSBayers gather once a month at Quail Point in rousing fun Bingo. A BYOB event, dinner is provided (for a nominal fee) prior to play...with prizes from donation.
Lorraine Robertson 830.598.6660

Bridge - Various Bridge groups at various stages of competitive play (both duplicate and contract) meet in different locations/times to keep the mind challenged and the friendships strong.
Mary Alice Dunn majdun@verizon.net 830.613.1003
Linda Nissen jjnissen@msn.com 830.220.0918

Canasta - Second Monday afternoon games of casual play and chatter at Quail Point bring together close fellowship of gal pals and opportunities to develop new friendships.

Mah Jongg - Women from across the Hill Country meet for varied "Mahj" play days. Mondays at Quail Point (afternoons), Tuesdays at the Yacht Club (reservations needed), and Last Thursday of the Month Play Day/lunch provided by the HSBAY Resort (lunch fee) with morning learning sessions (free) for newly interested players. Information from local "maven", Toby: tobymcc19@gmail.com
Reservations for Thursday play/lunch: jwebb@hsbresort.com

Poker - Evening poker games at horseshoe have varied groups on specific nights at Quail Point. They would be happy to take the money and welcome a newcomer! Contact HSBay POA Director

Faith:

The Bible Church - Located near the HSBay entrance, on Hwy 71, The Bible Church is Small community of believers who take a literal bible study approach to shared fellowship.
David Pope davidpope@verizon.net 830-596-8976
Lanny Tanton lanny.tanton@gmail.com 512.657.8396

- Church of HSBay (Interdenominational) - Protestant outreach within the church and community in the +2 program of volunteering alongside church friends in action.
Ronda Rodman rondaahsbay@gmail.com
- WOW/Women of the Word ladies at work through fellowship and joyful, faith-based experiences.
Gail Matthews gaggle1@verizon.net
Wendy Christenson
- Men' Bible Study is a weekly Wednesday Bible Study (verse by verse) at Quail Point at 9-10 a.m. among men with an open discussion. Art Hawkinson 830.598.1616/830.613.5132(c)
- Men of Faith is a monthly breakfast held to bring men together in fun special programs, activities, and shared prayer for others.
Bob Rogers brogers747@gmail.com
- St. Paul the Apostle Catholic Church - Lots of involvement and faith-based service opportunities at the church, depending on your talents and interests. Call the church or a local member, LynnetteMorrison lmorrison@ccim.net

Movement:

- Equestrian Interests - Local horse enthusiasts at the Trails and Bay Country share training, experiences, knowledge in informal/formal activities.
Becky Collins rbcollins@yahoo.com
Nancy Loftis nloftis22@gmail.com
- Hill Country Golfers - This group of 150+ members take their golf game on the road as they plan golf outings at varied clubs across the Hill Country to experience the dynamic courses available in different areas.
- Hill Country Hikers - This group of trekkers have a full calendar of early Monday morning hikes across the Hill Country and here at home. Join when you can for health and camaraderie.
Marilyn Ruiz muttito2@gmail.com
- MGA/18 hole - Over a hundred strong, the varied flights of the Friday (sometimes Saturday)morning male duffers provides a comfortable place for all levels of players to join team competitions and varied locations play. Annual fee. HSBay Resort Club membership required.
Slick Rock Golf Course Pro Shop – 830.598-2561
- 9-hole golfers - Thursday morning varied formats for ladies wanting to keep up their golf game and active lifestyle. A casual group of lady friends

With lots of fun memories being made. Annual fee of $60.
HSBay Resort Club membership required
Stephanie Hart stefhart@REAGAN.com
Slick Rock Golf Course Pro Shop – 830.598.2561

- Pickle Ball - Growing interest in this fun court activity, a little less strenuous than tennis, has exploded. Individual and team play in the evenings at the courtesy of the HSBay Resort available – with discussions for city park courts under development.
Shirley Hampton sjham35@gmail.com
- Pilates - Stretching and core development keep us balanced and active. One-hour morning classes on Tuesdays and Thursdays for all levels. Bring an exercise pad (or towel) and dress comfortably for a great stress relieving way to start the day.
Diane Jones 830.598.4528
- Sports Club - Monthly meetings with invited key speakers from varied sports fields share experiences and ‘tales’ with the over 100 member group in the Rudy Davalos Sports Club with common interests in all things sports. Steve Jordan stevejordan10@gmail.com
- Tennis - Love those Game, Set, Match moments? Contact the HSBay Resort Tennis Club for a group of like-minded, active ‘lobbers’..or a local enthusiast who can give you details. HSBay resort Members only. HSBay resort 598-2511
Jean Johnson jeanj21@verizon.net
- WGA/18 hole golfers - Over a hundred strong, the varied flights of the Wednesday morning lady duffers provides a comfortable place for all levels of players to join team competitions and varied locations play. Annual fee. HSBay Resort Club membership required.
Slick Rock Golf Course Pro Shop – 830.598-2561
- Wildflower dancers - These ladies practice and perform for many HSBay events for their own joy/exercise AND for the entertainment of all. No special dance skills required...just a love of movement and music.
Mary Daniel mipatwo@gmail.com

Service:

- Business Alliance - New and old businesses serve the community with small neighborhood commitment. Monthly coffee conversations open the network of businesses to each other and interested community members. Opportunities to volunteer in their many sponsored events (Summer “Boogie at the Bay”, 4th of July, etc.). Francie Dix fdix@tstar.net
- Public Civil Service HSBay is blessed with women of strong backgrounds, high character, and commitment to service. Those interested in public service can contact former City Council Members, Judges, POA Presidents, and varied local leadership roles for information. Donna Klaeger dklaeger@gmail.com
Claudia Haydon 830.598.9364
- Volunteer Opportunities There are many options for volunteer service in Marble Falls and Horseshoe Bay. For information to serve the Scott&White Hospital or Boys/Girls Club, contact: Karen Wines karenwines@verizon.net
Among the many other volunteer options:
- Fire Department Care Calls to shut ins(contact city)
 - Meals on Wheels/Veterans transportation support
 - Hill Country Women’s Shelter/Center (Thrift Shop)
 - SPCA

Lots of other active special interest groups abound in Horseshoe Bay including fishing, piloting, veterans, painting, book clubs, wine clubs....and on and on! You will be welcome as a new neighbor and community member to a group of new friends!

Updated May 2021